Rev. J. May Esq. Sept 14. 1823

My dear Sir

Thanks for your truly valuable letter to Mr. Jones, which he has permitted me to see.

Most earnestly I wish you may be able to attend the meeting at Manchester. Your information would be most valuable to them - I through them to others. It is information absolutely necessary for our English Unitarians.

I wish extremely you would prepare a statement of the facts and names you mention, - for insertion in the Christian Reformer, at the earliest possible period.

I fear you could not transmit it in time for the forthcoming number on the 1st of October.

But at the latest, do be good enough to send a short but energetic article on this subject for its following number of November —

I wish we could have to see you again in Paris. But though we may not have that pleasure behind it that you have left in profi-ous of your character, which change of place or length of time cannot in pair.

God's best blessing be with you, dear Sir; —

I beg my compliments to your brother, who

I trust appreciates the value of such society — and example as he has in so excellent a relation as you —

I remain faithfully ever Yours —

George Armstrong.

Mr James will send you a printed copy of our proposed Address, which I have had deft satisfaction in preparing &
